PROJECTS

Badira – Preeclampsia Early-Awareness App | StartSmart Saudi University Challenge Sep – Nov 2026

- Co-developed a bilingual Arabic/English web app raising early preeclampsia awareness among Arab women; designed a Risk × Reliability × Time framework that reports screening priority, data completeness and timing separately.
- Built and pitched a working prototype (badira-ai.netlify.app); reached the final stage and received a Certificate of Appreciation.

Early Prediction of Preeclampsia Using Multi-Source Maternal Health Data | Machine Learning Spring 2026

- Benchmarked 8 ML models across 3 clinical datasets with SMOTE, hyperparameter tuning and ensembling; Random Forest reached 84.7% accuracy and 0.951 AUC under adversarial tests (class imbalance, label noise, feature drift).

Resilient Heart-Disease Prediction Pipeline | Big Data Analytics Spring 2026

- Built an Apache Spark (PySpark) pipeline with Kafka streaming across 3 simulated hospitals and federated learning (FedAvg), so no patient data left a hospital; 84.85% accuracy, losing at most 3 points under noise, label poisoning and missing values.

AI Smart Recycling Bin | Artificial Intelligence Fall 2025

- Applied computer vision and transfer learning (MobileNetV2 CNN) to classify 5 waste types in real time; 78.24% real-world accuracy.

Smart Wearable Seizure Monitoring System | Software Engineering Spring 2026

- Designed a mobile app with wearable EEG, heart-rate and motion sensors for real-time AI seizure alerts.

Research: 4 co-authored papers on preeclampsia prediction, big data healthcare pipelines, EEG seizure detection (97.4% accuracy) and smart recycling, available at danamounayer.github.io/Portfolio.
